

Embassy of India
Lomé, Togo

ICCR Scholarship Schemes

The Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), an extended arm of the Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India, is an autonomous organization established in 1950 with the primary objectives of establishing, reviving and strengthening cultural relations and mutual understanding between India and other countries.

ICCR has announced the following scholarships for the Academic Year 2023-2024: -

- (i) Africa Scholarship Scheme (Under Graduate, Post Graduate and Ph.D. courses) at Indian Universities/Institutes for the nationals of 54 countries in the African continent, including Togo; and
- (ii) Lata Mangeshkar Dance & Music Scholarship (formerly ICCR Scholarship for Dance & Music); and

Five slots have been allocated for students from the Republic of Togo under the Africa Scholarship Scheme. There are 100 global scholarship slots under Lata Mangeshkar Dance & Music Scholarship to pursue course of Indian dance, music, sculpture, Indian theatre, cuisine, etc. Interested students/applicants can apply for admission directly at ICCR's A2A Scholarship Portal <http://a2ascholarships.iccr.gov.in>, which is currently operational. The last date to submit the application is 15 May 2023. For any further information/query, applicants may contact the Embassy via email at admn1.lome@mea.gov.in

Lomé
April 11, 2023